Department of Sociology

The department of Sociology was established in 1984 in Sariya College. The department emphasises the application of academic knowledge to inform social change and to promote individual and societal well-being. Students receive intensive training in sociological concepts and competencies from the department. Since the beginning the department has been headed by highly motivated faculties dedicated to teaching and research. The students from the department have been placed at different government and non-government agencies.

Vision

The Department of Sociology aims to stay active and grow in the field, the university, and the local and international communities. As we prepare the smartest and brightest students for their future careers and lives as active citizens, we aspire to attract even more of them to join the department.

Mission

The mission of the Department of Sociology is to promote scientific understandings of social life. We foster in our students' strong sociological imaginations and critical thinking by offering rigorous instruction in disciplinary methods and theories along with a variety of substantive concentrations and educational opportunities.
